Employer Commitment & Agreement for GSE Team Member

One of your employees has applied with Rotary District 7750 to be considered as a Team Member for one of the 4 positions available on this year's Group Study Exchange Trip.

If selected, his/her job will be to become part of a team of fellow young business professionals in an exchange to the designated foreign country.

The Group Study Exchange (GSE) program is a unique cultural & vocational exchange opportunity for young business professionals. It's purpose is to develop professional and leadership skills, better preparing them to address the needs of their professions, their community and our world.

Before considering anyone for one of these important positions, the District GSE Committee, must have the full cooperation from the participant's employer.

Please confirm your agreement to allow the aforementioned person to participate in this trip, if selected.
